EXPERIENCE THE AFRICAN BUSH IN STYLE WITH A&K'S EXCLUSIVE MOBILE CAMPING

EAST AFRICA

Over 50 years ago Abercrombie & Kent pioneered the modern day safari. For more than 20 years we have taken that experience and used it to create unbeatable incentive programmes. Our dedicated incentive specialists have an in-depth knowledge of East Africa as well as the recipe for a perfect incentive programme. One incentive specialist will handle your entire file, from initial contact through to the departure of the group. We handle 12-15 incentive groups per year, each with a bespoke itinerary that fits any budget. We can comfortably handle groups from 15 to 180 guests on safari and up to 300 participants for conferences in Mombasa or Zanzibar.

A&K operates exclusive mobile camps in Kenya, an experience that is unique in a location specially selected and privately set up for your client. This product symbolises the African dream that everyone imagines, organised by A&K to the luxury standards that are only found in 5 star lodges.

Our Kenya operation has two offices in Nairobi and Mombasa with 300 staff, including multilingual guides and drivers. In Kenya the 'big five' are easily photographed and the sheer majesty of the high density of game overwhelms most that experience it. Witness the thousands of wildebeest crossing the Mara River from the peaceful sanctuary of a hot air balloon, ending the flight with a champagne breakfast on the savannah; eat fresh seafood aboard a traditional Arab dhow; watch the sunset over the Ololooloo escarpment around a camp fire as our A&K guide regales you with stories from the Kenyan bush. These are the unique incentive moments that we can create for your clients.

More than 30 years old, our Tanzania operation is based in Arusha. Over 230 staff, including our own guides and drivers for our fleet of 70 vehicles, make us fully equipped to handle incentive groups of up to 200 guests. Tanzania remains an exclusive destination with top class accommodation and activities perfectly suited to large incentive groups. With some of Africa's oldest and best known tribes, like the elegant and proud Maasai or the Wahadzabe bushmen, authentic interactions are still possible. In addition to the traditional African safari, we can arrange gala dinners on private beaches in Zanzibar or even a James Bond themed night in the middle of the Serengeti.

For those incentive groups looking for a challenge, a Kilimanjaro climb is the ultimate adventure. We are the only international incentive specialist with a wholly owned ground operation on the mountain.

Our dedicated management team reviews all aspects of your clients' climb and helps determine which route is right for them whilst providing the highest standards of safety and service on the mountain.

Uganda, known as the 'Pearl of Africa', is untouched by mass tourism which makes it an amazing incentive destination. Gorilla tracking through the Bwindi rainforest is a captivating and unforgettable journey and the best wildlife experience we can offer for smaller incentive groups. client's incentive trip, be it adventure, flora and fauna or culture that interests your group. For the intrepid explorers we can arrange sand boarding, quad bike races across the Atacama desert, trekking in the Andes and private horse races at one of the best vineyards. For those groups seeking a more traditional way of enjoying their surroundings we can arrange outdoor Patagonian barbecues and Chilean winetasting in the mountains where your clients can even harvest grapes to make their own wine. In our opinion every incentive trip needs a 'wow' moment, and what better way to do this than a surprise during lunch or dinner, an A&K specialty. In the past we have arranged surprise opera singers, dinner beneath the stars and breakfast at sunrise in the Tatio Geysers.

CHILE

Our DMC opened in Chile in 2001, with an office in Santiago. Since then we have been working hard on creating memorable incentives for small groups of 15 guests to large conventions and incentive groups of up to 300 guests. Boasting 91 national parks, nature reserves and natural monuments, five UNESCO World Heritage Sites and 204 volcanoes, Chile is a natural playground of lakes, mountains, forests, desert and glaciers. The diverse landscape makes Chile an ideal location to host your piano, dine in an 18th century hacienda, straddle the equator or raft through the Ecuadorian cloud forest. For smaller groups of up to 100 we can arrange incentives in the Galapagos Islands. Treat your clients to the most biodiverse islands in the world where they can come face to face with a giant tortoise, snorkel with sea lions and walk in the footsteps of Darwin across the volcanic landscape. From our experience we know that a high level service combined with guides' local knowledge and a network of influential contacts is the perfect combination for delivering a seamless incentive. That's why we use only the best multilingual drivers and guides meaning we can ensure high quality control standards for our clients.
